The suffragettes will parade through the streets of Washington March 3.

The gold production in the United States last year was nearly half a million dollars.

Judge R. B. Bradley is a candidate for re-election as county judge of Adams county.

Gov. Sulzer, forty-second Governor of New York, was inaugurated January 1, with simple ceremonies.

One of the six suffragettes who marched from New York to Albany on a proposal on the way and stopped out.

Eight of the nine men entombed in the mine at Tawaqua, Pa., were taken alive 24 hours later. The other one is missing.

All hunting license expired Jan. 1. New ones will have to be taken. Quail cannot be killed until November, but rabbits may be killed until September 15.

Lynching Feared.

Bowling Green, Ky., Jan. 1.—Circuit Judge William P. Sandige, of Russellville, Logan county, ordered Sheriff Ab Rhea to transfer Samuel Jenkins, aged 55, and his wife, Vinia Jenkins, aged 46, from the Logan county jail to the Warren county jail for safe keeping, fearing a lynching. The prisoners, who are negroes, were brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff J. S. Taylor. They are charged with burning the tobacco barn of Henry Dawson, between Schoc and Adairville. Jenkins is charged with setting fire to the building Thursday night last which was partially destroyed, and on Friday night when the barn was burned to the ground. The contents, half of which belonged to Jenkins.

"EAST LYNNE"

In arranging the five-act emotional drama, "East Lynne," which will be presented at the opera house next Monday night by Mr. Joseph King's new "East Lynne" company, Mrs. Henry Wood struck the key note of her dramatic endeavors. While many of her plays have a lesson beneath the scintillant surface, none have quite touched the depth of earnestness in presentation as does "East Lynne."

The work of Miss Norma Berwin as Lady Isabelle, is charming. She catches the spirit of the theme, there is energy in her acting and she brings out excellently the purpose of the author.

Mr. J. W. Ray, as Archibald Carlyle, the husband, is all the role requires and is impressive and dignified. Mr. Joseph Hinley, as Sir Francis Devison, makes the character just what it should be—a smiling braggart, an agency of untold evil, a destroyer of marital confidence and a wrecker of homes. Miss Adelaide Turner, as Barbara Hare, and the rest of the cast are all well placed. The piece is well staged and the environment accurate in detail.

Ladies' reserved seat tickets free with first two hundred reserved seats purchased before door is open.

Prices: Lower floor, 50c; gallery, 25c and 35c.

MANY FINE HOTELS

CHATTANOOGA HAS AMPLE HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR DELEGATES TO CONVENTION.

Hotel Facilities for the 3,000 Pastors and Laymen Expected—Convention City Noted for Excellence of its Hotels and its Hospitality to Visitors.

A city noted for its ample hotel accommodations is Chattanooga, Tenn., which will be thronged with visitors February 4, 5 and 6, and already the hotels there are beginning to look forward to the occasion, anticipating the accommodation of many guests. Although the attendance upon the convention, it is expected will reach 3,000, including laymen and pastors, all will be well taken care of in a comfortable manner.

Hotel facilities form a city's chief asset as far as the traveling public is concerned. The rapid growth in size and popularity of Chattanooga had given rise to an ever-increasing demand for ample hotel accommodations and this demand has always been supplied. Never has it been said of Chattanooga that it could not care for all who were guests within its hospitable borders. The 60,000 tourists who visit the city annually all receive the best of attention.

The largest hotel in the city is the Hotel Patten, a twelve-story $1,000,000 structure, with over 250 rooms, located at the point where Georgia avenue, Market street and Eleventh street come together. This hotel is one of the finest structures of its kind in America, is absolutely fireproof and equipped with all modern hotel facilities.

Hotel Patten (Headquarters).

Both the Patten and the Read are frequently chosen as headquarters for notable gatherings.

The Grand hotel, a new five-story fireproof building, is located on Market street, just across from the Terminal station. It is modernly equipped.

Other hotels are:
 The Read house, located on West Ninth street, opposite the Union Station.

The Eastern hotel, corner of Market and Eleventh streets.

The Hotel Northern, corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets.

The Theresa, on East Sixth street, back of the Bijou.

The Ford hotel, South Market street, near the Terminal station.

The Tourist hotel, South Market street, opposite the Terminal station.

The Redmon hotel, South Market street, opposite the Terminal station.

The Terminal hotel, East Fourteenth street, near the Terminal station.

The Williams house, on Market street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, running through to Georgia avenue.

RELIGIOUS CENTER

CHATTANOOGA MERITS THE DISTINCTION OF BEING VERY STRONG IN ITS CHURCHES.

Baptists Occupy a High Place Numerically—Interchurch Federation Has Proved to be a Great Success in This City.

Chattanooga merits easily the distinction of being a religious center. This is demonstrated not only by the cordial welcome it always extends to visiting religious conventions, but by the activity in church circles locally. The interchurch federation there has already proven a success, as was shown recently when the city auditorium was the scene of a service in the interest of church unity, under the auspices of the federation.

The Baptists in Chattanooga occupy a high position numerically. There are in Chattanooga over a dozen active white Baptist churches and each Monday morning, following a conference of the ministers of all denominations in the Y. M. C. A. building, the Baptist pastors meet in the Sunday-school room of the First Baptist Church and there discuss the work of their denomination. The suburban churches in Chattanooga, as well as those uptown, are active in promoting the causes for which they stand.

All the Baptists of Chattanooga are unanimous in their anticipation of the coming laymen's convention and they are making big preparations to give their visiting brethren, both ministers and laymen, a hearty welcome, the memory of which will last long after the convention shall have adjourned.

A Chattanooga Baptist welcome, which is of the highest type, and a welcome from the members of the other denominations, born of Christian fellowship, will be accorded all delegates.

Chattanoogans will open their hearts to the Baptist hosts who journey that way February 4, 5 and 6.

SKETCH OF MOVEMENT

Southern Baptists Endorse Laymen's Missionary Movement in Richmond, Va., in 1907.

Southern Baptists endorsed the Laymen's Movement at the meeting of their convention in Richmond, Va., in May, 1907. An executive committee of nine men was appointed with J. Harry Tyler as chairman, and Baltimore as headquarters. After months of searching for a secretary the committee secured the services of J. T. Henderson, of Virginia, for a part of his time.

The movement has gained considerable headway among Southern Baptists; the different states have committees more or less active and hundreds of association and churches have committees to press the principles of this movement. South Carolina has a salaried secretary. Scores of men are recognizing the obligation of stewardship and are heartily giving valuable time, thought and service as well as money to the propagation of the gospel.

The great convention to be held in Chattanooga will add new impetus to this movement among Southern Baptists.

The speakers are to be among the ablest on the continent. President S. C. Mitchell, of the State University of South Carolina; Dr. J. B. Gambrell, of Texas; Dr. W. J. Williamson, of St. Louis; J. Campbell White, of New York; President W. L. Poteat, of Wake Forest College, N. C.; Dr. H. F. La Flamme, of New York; Dr. Geo. W. Truett, of Texas, and Judge Whipple, of Georgia, are a few of the speakers.
